ABOUT ME

Responsible and dedicated individual who is eager for further improvement and learning. Easily adaptable to any work environment, capable of both independent and team work. Very disciplined and persistent in every type of task. Motivated by achieving goals, which are attained through gradual and thorough problem-solving. Primarily interested in frontend technologies (HTML, CSS, and JavaScript), followed by databases (SQL and MySQL).

WORK EXPERIENCE

Focused on studying, worked part-time student jobs in free time (Waikiki, Springfield).

PROJECTS

- YoutubeCopy - a platform inspired by YouTube, focusing on the design of elements and the overall page layout. A personal project built using HTML and CSS.

- Numerous smaller projects involving web application development, interface design, and functionality implementation using basic web technologies - each of which is available on my LinkedIn and GitHub account.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

- Active member of the Academic Cultural and Artistic Society 'Branko Krsmanović' at the University of Belgrade.
- Experience in educational work with preschool and school-aged children.
